FOREWORD

THE OVERFLOW

The Overflow is continually flowing,
Our love for it is ever growing.
The water is never too cold or too hot,
It always refreshes and hits the spot.
Our Overflow is the best in the Nation,
It is God's own wonderful creation.

Poetess: Clara Lee Quinn

REMEMBER

Twelve years have we to Grady been
All in Happiness mixed with work and play.
Let us have something to remember:
A symbol--to take with us into a future day.
What could be a symbol of our dear school?
The Overflow--yes, indeed.
It brings forth water clear and cool;
Yet, deeper down where our thoughts seldom go
We find there is another kind of overflow:
One that brings forth water crystal clear;
The other, an overflow of happy memories
and knowledge gained here.
Whenever we leave this school behind,
Whatever we do, wherever we go--
Let us take with us, if only in memory,
The dear old high school Overflow.

Poet: Lynn Harper

CLASS HISTORY

In August, 1949, we, the Class of 1953, made our green appearance in high school.

We were not noticeably shy after the newness of the promotion rubbed off. It was not long before many of our members became active, especially in the F.F.A., F.H.A., and other clubs.

How well I remember our mysterious glances at the "stuck-up" Seniors, and how we longed to have their privileges. Under the keen eyes of Miss Dillard and Mr. Sills, our guides, we soon began to get the high school swing. With Shirley Ann Smith serving as the class president, the year happily passed and we had grown to be lively Sophomores.

So many Sophomores were we that the class was divided into two parts; Mrs. Swain (Miss Hofler) and Miss Grady were our advisors. Shirley Ann Smith, Donn Wells, J. W. Waters, Shirley Britt, Annie Lois Grady, Annie Bruce Grady, Nannie Lou Jones, Gwyn Kelly, Robert Hines, Morris Sandlin, Velma Heath and Katie Miller nourished the class as Beta Club members. I'm sure we all remember the lovely ice cream party, as well as the swim we had at Dudley Beach, which was given by Annie Lois and our respective grade parents. We had a lovely party at Ruby's home that year, also.

Soon - but not soon enough - we were Juniors. We elected as our officers J. W. Waters, President; Shirley Britt, Vice-President; Gwyn Kelly, Secretary; Robert (Ro-bear) Hines, Treasurer; and Laura Alice Bryant, Reporter. We gave our Junior Play, "Bolts and Nuts", with flying colors. Of course, this credit goes to Mrs. Davis and the play cast: Annie Lois Grady, Donn Wells, Shirley Britt, Shirley Ann Smith, Annie Bruce Grady, Robert Hines, Elbert Garvey, Ruby Powell, J. W. Waters, Bruce Southerland, Ernest Grady, Joyce Oates, and Lynn Harper. Everleene and Gwyn were equally important as prompters. I think we had more fun at Woodrow's Famous Hot Dog Stand than we did at play practice. After the play was over, Woodrow Smith and Sylvester Tew gave the play cast a dance at Maxwell's Mill. Shortly after the play, we had our Junior-Senior Banquet, with the help of Mrs. Davis, our home room teacher. The theme was "A Wedding". We honored Mr. and Mrs. Wells on their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The banquet was given in the Hotel Goldsboro, Goldsboro, North Carolina. We ordered our class rings and had a magazine sale. We were divided into two sides for the sale. The losing side gave the winners a fish fry at Scottie's Pool near Mount Olive. Various members of the Beta Club that were in the Junior Class went to the State Convention in Raleigh. Annie Lois, Robert, Elbert, Gwyn, Annie Bruce, and William "Snowball" went to Carolina Beach on a week-end beach party. Mr. and Mrs. Perry Grady were chaperons.

And now--we are Seniors! My, it seems that only yesterday we were like lost sheep in the corridors of B. F. Grady High. Yet today, we have ordered calling cards, invitations, caps and gowns, and we have had our pictures made for the annual. Our class has decreased since 1949. There are only forty of us now left in the Gypsy Clan. Mr. Johnson is our Senior Advisor, and our officers are as follows: J. W. Waters, President; Shirley Ann Smith, Secretary; Donn Wells, Vice-President; Robert Hines, Treasurer; and Shirley Britt, Reporter. The Overflow, basketball, baseball, and dramatics played important parts during the year. And guess what??? Well, since you can't, I'll tell you. Our Harvest Festival King and Queen, Lynn Harper and Viola Wilkins, were crowned Mr. and Miss B. F. Grady High in the Annual Harvest Festival!

Many things that are important to a Senior are yet to come: Our Senior Play, the Junior-Senior Banquet, Baccalaureate Sermon, and finally (sigh) our Graduation. It makes us very sad to know that this is our last year; that we have walked these corridors with a sense of "belonging" for the last time. Yet, we are brave and we will be prepared for the future with smiling faces, as a true Gypsy should.

CLASS PROPHECY

As I sit here during our Class Day Exercises, I can picture in my mind our Class of '53 in 1963.

I see Shirley Britt and Laura Alice as graduates of Bowman Gray Hospital. Shirley has captured her high school "dream man" and Laura is working as private nurse in Pink Hill.

Ernest is a patrolman. As a sideline, he is in a well-known quartet, his own group.

Gwyn majored in child education while at East Carolina. She and "Snowball" are using it wisely, for they have several brats all their own.

Audrey is happily settled near Red Hill as a preacher's wife and a religious educator. She and Clara Lee Kornegay went to school together. Clara Lee is now a missionary in China.

Ida Rouse has established a fine kindergarten school at Albertson. She keeps several of her classmates' kids while they work, including Mildred's and Delano's. Mildred has her own TV program at Pink Hill, since she is our latest female Bing Crosby.

The new editor of the "Outlaw's Bridge Times" is Shirley Smith, who is now Mrs. Dovelle Outlaw.

Robert has established a large tobacco industry near Kinston. He even has a private secretary, Dixie, and a private telephone operator, Velma. Velma's high school chum, Katie, works as a secretary in Kinston. Robert says the three girls keep the telephone lines hot.

Elbert and J. W. helped out our Uncle Sam a little while. Elbert is making the "Gy-renes" his career. J. W. is now busy supervising work on his plantation near Watersville, N. C.

Annie Bruce and Ruby Powell almost rocked A.C. clear out of Wilson while there. They are both secretaries for bachelor millionaires. Could they be interested in the millionaires' millions, or does Annie Bruce still fall for "black wavy hair"?

William Dail is in the Navy. As a sideline he writes those wild stories like he did in high school, for Life magazine.

Everleene is an X-ray technician at Wilson. She coaches the Nurses' Staff basketball team there.

Ruby Grey and Bruce are starring in a hit Broadway musical as a dance team. Bruce still likes his Pink Hill girls, and Ruby her Cadets.

John Henry is a lawyer in Duplin County and is in position for the next County Judge.

Arbutus and Nelson had a June wedding and she is now one of the outstanding Home Demonstration women for the county.

Viola is settled near La Grange with her high school boy friend. She and Lena Bruce work in the telephone office there as operators.

Donn is an outstanding music teacher. He specializes in teaching high school glee club.

Adrian is still taking Nannie Lou to every show that comes to Mount Olive, but now he takes their little girl along, also.

Dulan is choir director of several Baptist churches around here. He has lost the name of "Class Baby" now.

Betty is head ticket agent for the drive-in theater at Woodrow's.

Margaret is one of the top beauticians of the South. She specializes in hair styling and massages.

Now coaching the basketball team at State College, we find our own Lynn Harper. He is doing a fine job of it, too.

Irene is head cheerleader for Alan's baseball team. Alan says she can yell, too.

Morris is playing professional football now and making a real name for himself.

Tharon is Jimmy's private secretary. They are running service stations in Deep Run.

Joyce and Clara Lee Quinn are both nurses in the new hospital at Kenansville. Joyce is day supervisor and Clara Lee is night supervisor.

Eugene has an eight-piece band which plays for all the dances anywhere around, since he has taken the Rhythm Four's place.

Martha Sue is now working in Warsaw and living there. She is slowly but surely losing her bashfulness.

Somewhere along the way, I see for myself a rosy future, and hope that it will come true.

CLASS POEM

SENIORS

Graduation day will soon be here,
Let us be happy and greet it with cheer,
For twelve years we have strived to develop our mind,
Yet some of us are lazy and waste precious time.
With tears of sorrow and tears of delight,
We will bid our friends farewell on that great night.
There are forty students in our class,
May our thoughts flow freely and help us to pass.
We are proud of our class and we really should be,
We are B. F. Grady Seniors of Nineteen Fifty-three!

MEMORIES

Our school days will soon be gone,
But our memories will always linger on.
We were small and undecided when our school days began,
Our teachers were always ready to lend a helping hand.
Some of us were smart and some were rather slow,
Still we strived and worked to make our knowledge grow.
As we finish our high school education,
With pride and great delight,
May our pathways be brightened with truth and all that's right.
We will love and forever cherish those days left behind,
Working to gain more knowledge and a better developed mind.
